Daily Bruch has been created to share with you the small secrets of a good breakfast and lunch.

Fresh Greek or imported seasonal ingredients, produced by selected producers, enter our kitchen to become sandwiches, salads, soups and small delicacies with the signature of Greek Chef Nena Ismyrnoglou.

All our products are prepared at the moment of your order, so you can enjoy them in all their freshness and excellent taste, every day at your own place – and if there's any delay in delivering them, it's because of our way of preparing them and nothing else.

We offer special menus for business meetings.
